

HEARTSTONE FOUNDATION PRIVACY POLICY

Our Policy

This Privacy Policy covers The HeartStone Foundation's treatment of personal information that may be collected or submitted when the web-user ("you") are using the HeartStone Foundation's website or services. This Policy does not apply to companies that The HeartStone Foundation does not own or control, or to individuals that are not under The HeartStone Foundation's supervisory control. We work hard to protect your information. Your information is stored on a secure server that The HeartStone Foundation and its authorized personnel can only access through a password. Additionally, we encrypt your information to prevent third parties without authorization from intercepting your information when it is in transit to us.

How We Collect Your Personal Information

While using the HeartStone Foundation's website, you may submit Personal Information when registering for events, ordering products, and posting content. Depending on the service or process, the Personal Information you may be asked to provide is your: Name, Postal Address, Email address, Phone number, Credit or Debit Card Information, Age, Gender or other demographic information. Personal Information may also be collected, or your IP address logged, when you visit The HeartStone Foundation's website. Your IP information allows us to understand how you use our site and to enable us to make changes to our site in order to improve your experience. Information regarding your computer, your connection to our website (such as your browser type, operating system, and platform) and your user history (including, but not limited to, your session information, page errors and the length of your visits to specific pages within our website) may also be collected.

Our Use of Cookies

The HeartStone Foundation uses cookies to remember certain user information. Cookies are electronic identifiers that are transferred automatically to your computer through your browser that allow our computers to save certain information you provide us and store information about you so we can recognize you when you visit our website in the future. This allows you to avoid logging in more than once, which saves time, and create a customized website that fits your needs. You may, at any time, disable or refuse to accept cookies by changing the preferences or settings on your web browser. If you choose to disable cookies, you will still be able to use our website. However, you will not be able to fully take advantage of certain automation and other functionality features available.

How We Use Your Personal Information

The HeartStone Foundation may use the Personal Information you provide for purposes such as: carrying out a registration made by you; customizing the advertising and content you see; fulfilling your requests for products and services (including purchases); improving the content and overall look and feel of our website and services, contacting you, conducting research, providing anonymous reporting for internal and external clients, contacting users regarding changes to our website or business, and customizing the content that you see on the HeartStone Foundation's website. The HeartStone Foundation may also retain the details of purchases and other transactions or payments made with us or the partners affiliated with our website.

How Your Personal Information is Disclosed

It is The HeartStone Foundation's policy not to disclose, sell or rent your Personal Information to any individual, business, government entity or outside parties except: (i) to provide products or services you've requested through us; (ii) in response to a validly-issued subpoena, court order, or other legal process; (iii) when necessary to establish or exercise our legal rights or defend against legal action; or (v) where you request The HeartStone Foundation to do so. From time to time, The HeartStone Foundation may use return email addresses to answer the email we receive from you. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose. Your Personal Information will not be collected for use that is in violation of the law, or unrelated to the that discussed in this Policy, unless you are also provided an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Correcting Your Personally Identifiable Information

You are responsible for ensuring that all Personal Information you provide on the website is maintained and kept current.

Web Statistics & Shared Data

We collect and use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track user movement, and gather broad demographic information for reporting and sponsorship purposes. From time to time, we may use this information to better design our website and to share with select advertising partners, sponsors, and/or affiliates however IP addresses are not linked to Personal Information. For example, we may tell an advertiser that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that Y number of men and Z number of women filled out our registration form, but we will not disclose to these partners, sponsors and/or affiliates anything that could be used to personally identify those individuals.

Scope of this Policy; Third Party Websites

Although this policy applies to the all information obtained by you for the purpose of accessing or using content controlled and owned by The HeartStone Foundation, it does not apply to businesses or entities that are not owned or controlled by us.

This website contains links to other third party websites. Please be aware that The HeartStone Foundation does not claim any responsibility for the privacy practices of these third party sites. We encourage you to be aware when you leave our site and to take reasonable precautions when sharing your personally identifiable information on third party websites.

Amendments

The HeartStone Foundation reserves the right to amend this policy at any time.
